

State achieves balanced budget, solvency

(July 11) Indiana is back in the black, Governor Daniels announced Tuesday. Thanks to a tight budget and spending restraint, Indiana has its first balanced budget in eight years and the first true surplus in three years.

Read the news release

Visit the governor's Web site to watch video of the balanced budget announcement. Click here

Governor's Update

Volume 1, Issue 2
July 9-15, 2006

Read what the Fort Wayne Journal Gazette had to say about the state's balanced budget

Governor orders K-12 school debt fully repaid

(July 12) "Now that we have restored the state to solvency, it's important to pay these debts back as fast as we possibly can and continue practicing fiscal responsibility..." said Governor Daniels. The decision to repay the funds followed the previous day's announcement of a balanced budget.

Read the news release

State police expanding numbers with more recruits

(July 14) "A major objective of our administration has been the strengthening of the state police and its restoration to elite status among all American law enforcement agencies," said the governor.

Read the news release

Click here to listen to audio of Governor Daniels' July 14th media availability covering the state police announcement.

Nine receive awards at Indiana Black Expo Governor's Reception

(July 11) Nine Hoosier education, business and community leaders from across the state were recognized for their accomplishments at the Indiana Black Expo, Inc. 36th Annual Summer Celebration (IBE) Governor's Reception.

Read the news release

View the governor's photo gallery

View the governor's audio page